Critical Reflections on the Role of Mental Health Professionals

Everyone speaks of the wrongfulness of an evil act, but inexplicably no one is held accountable for the wrongfulness of failure to do good. And thus, fundamental social evils remain unresolved.

Ryan Coleman-Farrow jailed for faking rape case records

Coleman-Farrow pleaded guilty to 13 counts of misconduct.

A former Metropolitan Police detective constable who specialised in rape cases has been sentenced to 16 months in prison for faking police records. Ryan Coleman-Farrow, 30, from East Sussex, admitted 13 counts of misconduct in a public office, at Southwark Crown Court in September.

He failed to investigate rape and sexual assault cases and falsified entries on a police computer system. The convictions relate to 10 rape cases and three sex assault cases. The 13 cases included a 96-year-old woman who witnesses said had been raped, a 49-year-old severely brain damaged care home resident who alleged she was raped by a member of staff, two 15-year-old girls, a 14-year-old schoolboy, and a vulnerable woman patient at a specialist unit for sexual abuse.

The offences he should have investigated were committed between January 2007 and September 2010, while he was an officer at Kingston-upon-Thames, south-west London, working for Scotland Yard's specialist Sapphire unit.

Kingston Shenanigans

Ignoring Abuse

Kingston Council 'ignored abuse warning' that led to murder

Social work managers ignored requests to visit a woman being abused by her partner days before he killed her in front of their toddler, according to leaked documents. The NSPCC twice referred Charito Cruz to social services at Kingston Council because of Mohammed Asad Niazi's abuse. He also watched pornography in front of his 2 year old daughter and let her play with cigarettes.

In December Niazi, 30, was found guilty of bludgeoning Ms Cruz to death with a hammer in 2011 and jailed for 12 years. An Ofsted report said the council had not adequately addressed "all the areas identified" in its internal management review, which has never been published but has been seen by BBC London.

Duncan Clark, Kingston's director of children and learning, resigned with a £128,000 pay-off the day before the Ofsted report was published. The internal review found on one occasion a social services manager did not think the referral was serious enough to warrant a home visit. On the second occasion in September 2011 the manager did not read the referrals but took the documents home to read.

Kingston's former acting head of social care, Olivia Butler, who ordered the internal investigation into what went wrong, said what she uncovered was "very poor practice and tantamount to negligence".

Inadequate Council Leader

Kingston council leader quits over child porn arrest

Derek Osbourne has twice served as council leader

The leader of Kingston borough council has resigned after he was arrested on suspicion of possessing indecent images of children.

Derek Osbourne, 59, was arrested on Tuesday at his home in Kingston and taken to a south London police station. He has been bailed until August.

In a statement, acting leader Liz Green said the Liberal Democrats were "deeply shocked".

Mr Osbourne was first elected leader from 1997-98, and then again from 2003.

Published: 10 July 2012

A London borough has been stripped of its responsibility for child protection after a damning official report.

Duncan Clark, director of children's services at Lib-Dem Kingston has stepped down and his department taken over by Nick Whitfield at neighbouring Tory Richmond council.

The unpublished Ofsted report, seen by the Standard, found the department as a whole "inadequate" — the lowest possible rating.

The borough is the first in the capital to have been forced to give up control of safeguarding children. Kingston will lose responsibility for children in care, social services, adoption and keeping children safe in local schools.

<http://www.standard.co.uk/news/london/london-council-loses-control-of-child-protection-7932131.html>

Kingston council has reportedly been stripped of its child protection responsibilities following an unannounced Ofsted inspection. According to the Evening Standard, the unpublished inspection report rated the authority's children's services department 'inadequate' and came as a big shock to the director of children's services, who has since stepped down.

Responsibility for children's services has reportedly been passed to neighbouring Richmond council.

Council leader Derek Osbourne told the Standard: "Given Kingston's track record of excellence in children's services the Ofsted report was both a terrible shock and blow. We are committed to address the shortfalls in our performance to provide quality safeguarding for all."

Inadequate Values

Former council leader jailed for two years for 'appalling' child pornography offences

Derek Osbourne's computer contained images of 'stomach churning' child abuse, bestiality and severe violence against women. Derek Osbourne, 59, who stepped down as leader of Kingston upon Thames, south west London, in June, was told that the public interest "cries out for custody". He was also told he must register as a sex offender for the next 10 years.

Judge Alistair McCreath, sitting at Southwark Crown Court, told him: "This imagery is of real children, suffering real abuse. "Of course you did not perpetrate that abuse directly yourself, but you and others like you are complicit it, because without people to look at it, there would be no point in doing it."

Osbourne, of Burlington Road, New Malden, pleaded guilty at an earlier hearing to seven counts of making indecent images of children, four counts of possession of indecent images of children and six counts of distributing indecent images of children.

The judge said he had to deal with him for downloading 2,844 still images, and 293 movies, of children. He also had to deal with him for the distribution of 23 stills and seven movies. Osbourne had also accessed 152 extreme images, either in still form or as movies, showing "revolting images of deviant sexual practices", including depiction of sexual behaviour between humans and animals, and depictions of serious violence being inflicted on women.

Kingston Police Officer Manipulation

She went to Kingston police station on 7th September 2010 at about 10pm to request emergency accommodation arrangements for the night. The duty police officer interviewed her in the public area for about 40 minutes. The following facts (established across approximately four occasions) comprehensively describe the content of the 'clandestine' police briefing:

1. The police officer reportedly said 'We know your _____. He is a dangerous man.'
2. 'We know about the baby at 13/14.'
3. 'We suspect he killed one of our officers. An officer wanted to talk informally to your _____ without informing his colleagues or superiors or writing it down. A few days later he was found dead in his car at Wimbledon Common – it was made to look like a traffic accident.'
3. 'We just do not know what exactly he is up to. He seems to be part of a Cartel. He seems to have links to the IRA and the Mafia.'
4. 'We may need to take you into a witness protection program. For that reason it is better if you do NOT form close relationships.'
5. 'As part of the witness protection program we may take you abroad e.g. to Australia. We would completely break down your personality and mould you into a different person.'
6. The police officer referred to a couple that was found dead indicating that police think the _____ may have been involved in their death. When <Mother> asked 'So what about the baby?' the police officer showed (or feigned) surprise – implying police did not know that they had a baby – that must have disappeared.
7. If your child is attacked we want you to wait 4 weeks or 1 month before you report the attack.
8. <Mother> asked for clarification whether 4 weeks OR 1 month with the police officer responding 'It does not matter when exactly as injuries will have healed by then'. <Mother> decided to 'program' herself to report after exactly one month.

Stalking & Defamation

Defamatory calls to police e.g.:

- 'I saw her shop lifting'
- 'There was a girl crying in the field'

Defamatory calls to social services e.g.:

- 'Neglecting child'
- 'Concerns about mental health'

Physical threats e.g.:

- Driving up the pavement
- Trying to wrestle buggy off mother

Enlisting members of the public / co-conspirators e.g.:

- 'A rich benefactor would like to pay for the schooling of your child'
- 'Yes. She is on the bus – she is carrying, ahem, a buggy'
- 'She is feeding dog food to her child' (police incident record)

Inadequate Psychs

Clinical Psychologist Interview

The advocate was informed that a young mother had a 'final' interview in a 'Family Court' process triggered by her attempt to report a sexual assault on her toddler. Police, Social Services and several Psychiatrists had dismissed the mothers account that she had been instructed by police officers to delay reporting of any sexual assault by several weeks (ostensibly to facilitate an 'Undercover Police Operation' to nail the perpetrator for life). The Clinical Psychologist generously permitted the advocate to observe the 2.5 session where the mother was clear and coherent throughout indicating sexual abuse from birth to age 20 and describing being sexually abuses by a downstairs neighbour. The assault on her toddler was not covered. A few weeks later the mother disclosed that she had a baby at 13/14 that 'disappeared'. This incident (which was disclosed at the outset of the case) was not covered in the interview either.

https://www.researchgate.net/publication/315722744_FALSE_MEMORIES_FALSE_INNOCENCE_BELIEF_SYNDROME_FIBS_AND_MIND_CONTROL

NHS Psychiatrist Compromise?

At the first support visit the mother made disconcerting disclosures that suggested the operation of an Organised Ritual Crime Abuse Network (ORCAN) shielded by 'professionals' in positions of authority. On a further visit the mother opened up about the first Psychiatrist she was made to see who tried to 'section' her. In the presence of another Psychiatrist and two social workers at her home he reportedly made self-incriminating statements:

- I have been outside your family's house.
- I know your parents are into devil worship.
- It is nearly impossible to escape such a cult.
- I was told 'a baby is coming'.
- I was asked by a friend in the senior civil service to diagnose you as 'schizophrenic, schizoid and paranoid'. I know this is not the correct diagnosis but I will do as I am told.
- Do not expect me to remember that I said this, or that I would remember this in court.

Misconduct & Ethics

The Legal Aid funded solicitor of the mother refused to challenge the reports of the mental health professionals and concealed medical as well as police records supporting the mother's account. A Deputy Leader of the Council agreed to a meeting with the advocate but then withdrew on the advice of the Legal Department. The presiding judge failed to take receipt of a statement from another Clinical Psychologist attesting 'severe childhood trauma'.

Against this background the advocate felt obliged by the BPS Code of Ethics to raise concerns about the 'professionals'. He also initiated communication with the line manager of the Psychiatrist even offering an opportunity to arrange attendance at one of the childhood trauma disclosure sessions. The medical director acknowledged receipt of the email but did not engage with the subject matter.

Hi

Pleased you are in good spirits.

What is an IRH?

You must speak out about Dr <Self-incriminating Psychiatrist> - it is despicable what he is doing and how he is taking you for a ride - to hell. I got a low opinion of <Legal Aid Solicitor>' s inaction so far.

If <Legal Aid Solicitor> is not prepared to lodge substantial complaint soon against <Self-incriminating Psychiatrist> you must drop him

They seem to be more interested In abiding a criminal Paedophil than helping you!!!

Stop thinking about going abroad. You have to face down your <family member> by getting more of your own child abuse on paper and into the process

True victory would be only possible through achieving closure on your first baby - through a murder investigation. chant about this - even the thought of him or her must be ever so painful. Tell people about this (before getting onto <boy> attack)

Canvass for other solicitors who are prepared to take on the numerous errors of procedure and interpretation - I sent you a pro forma a few weeks ago

Best wishes

Deputy Council Leader Interaction

Dear Dr Kurz

Further to your request for a meeting on Monday, 12 November, I have sought advice and have been informed that proceedings in relation to this case are being heard by a judge at Court. Consequently, within my position as Deputy Leader, I am not able to become involved with individual cases where the situation is being managed in a court arena. The only advice I can give is that you make your own representation to the court and thereby allow the judge to decide whether he wishes to hear your representation.

I am therefore unable to meet with you as arranged on Monday, 12 November 2012 at 9.30am.

Yours sincerely

Woman critically ill after fire in Blaengarw homes

29 January 2011 | Wales

A woman is in a critical condition after 20 people were evacuated from eight homes when fire swept through a village terrace.

The fire broke out in Railway Terrace in Blaengarw, in Bridgend county, in the early hours.

Seven houses were well alight when South Wales Fire and Rescue Service arrived, with one severely damaged.

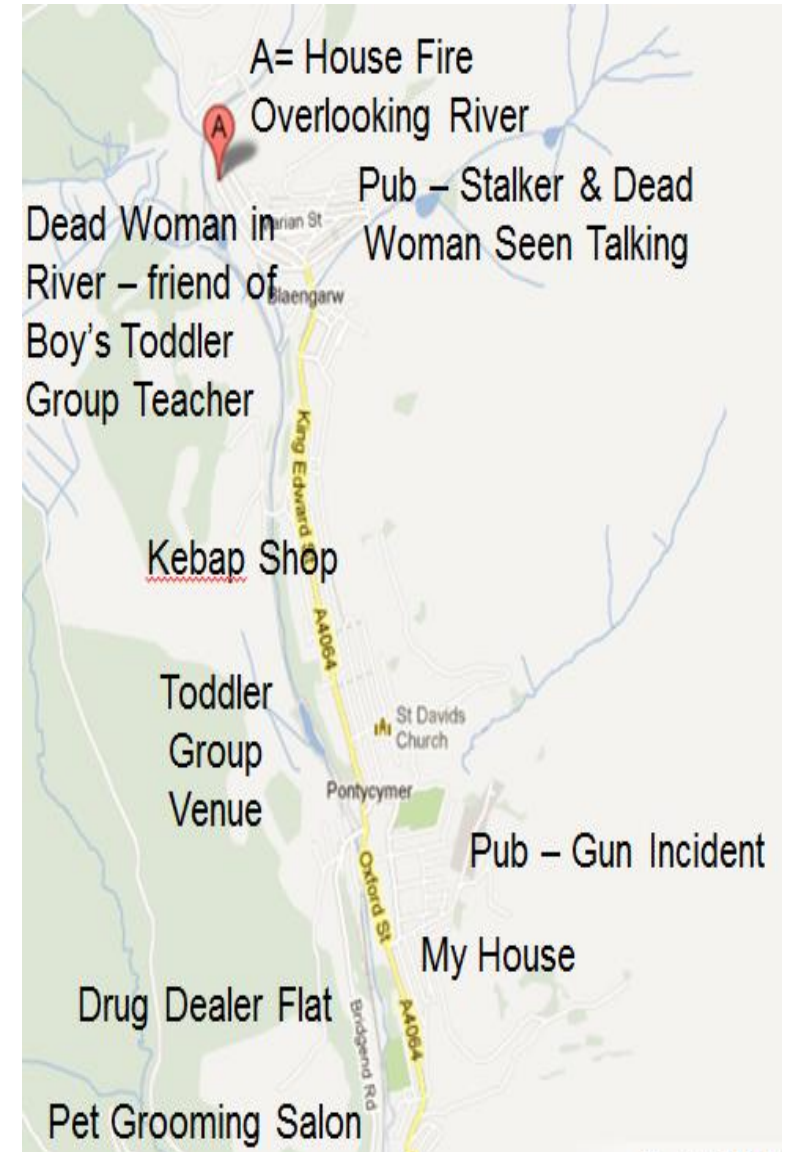

Scenes of crime officers have begun work with the fire investigation team to try to find out the cause.

Seven fire appliances, including two hydraulic platforms, were sent to the scene.

Fire service officer Tim Pendrick, the commander at the scene, told BBC Radio Wales that the emergency services were called at 0034 GMT.

In between these two incidents the godmother of the toddler was found dead in her burnt out house across the Irish sea.

Witness Statement Concealed (23 pp.)!

Extract 1: Not a single one of the above apply to <Mother> when dealing with friends or the public! Understandably due to the history of abuse she does not fancy interaction with her parents or County officials that act in a domineering manner that remind her of her parents. <Mother> just prefers to stay clear of her abusive parents, their agents and any others colluding with them. Basically – by common sense standards the diagnosis of Schizoid seems unwarranted.

Extract 2: In a medical sense the term delusion simply does not apply: 'A delusion is a belief held with strong conviction despite superior evidence to the contrary'. No other 'delusions' have been established. Even if the rape was taken as a delusion it should be classed as a 'brief psychotic disorder'. By common sense standards the diagnosis of Schizophrenia seems unwarranted.

Extract 3: ...Paranoia... Thought disorder scale scores are likely to be elevated due to Bona Fide 'Dissociative Identity Disorder' symptoms – a condition brought about by severe sexual abuse in early childhood. The episode where she was locked out by her _____ to be abused by the downstairs neighbour was covered in the Clinical Psychologist interview that I witnessed – apparently this most severe of allegations in the whole interview has been _____!!! Another influence leading to elevated scores on such a scale would be the numerous harassments she experienced – several of which are apparently documented in the police files.

'Forced Adoption' Opposition (Excerpts)

6. Since the last Hearing, it has been possible with the relentless efforts of Rainer Kurz, Chartered psychologist, to enlist the support of a number of highly regarded experts in this field, who together are now able to establish that any assertion to the effect that the mother is suffering from delusional behaviour is not only insulting but totally untrue.
7. It is clear from my lengthy discussions with the mother that she has throughout her childhood and into her teenage years been subjected to the most grievous and relentless sexual abuse with in her own family. She was for many years a prisoner in her own home where ritual abuse was perpetrated and aided by a systematic cover up, culminating in a Court case underpinning the cover up by suggesting that it was, in effect, all in this young lady's imagination.
8. As to her present whereabouts, I can only speculate but I am aware, having spoken to her at great length, how terrified she is of the authorities, including the police, who, it appears certain, have been party to this cover up.
9. This is a hugely important case involving a child separated from a loving mother for absolutely no reason. Though fallacious arguments were raised initially, it was accepted as a fact that she was not negligent in her care of her son and spurious allegations of that nature were disproven. The only issue that arose was whether the mother was well, or not. In so far as the mother might be termed unwell, she may well be affected by this protracted, vicious assault upon her, but this has never rendered her incapable of looking after her son. To suggest otherwise, and indeed to assert that she is imagining her abuse is to cause the most damage of all. I am entirely satisfied as are a number of experts consulted that the mother has been ritually, sexually, and consistently abused by her own family members and others, with their blessing and encouragement.
10. I have been involved in the legal profession for over 30 years but have never witnessed a case of such public and disturbing importance. These allegations are not made in response to the public outcry following the Saville matters. These matters were raised well in advance and are wholly genuine. I have a public duty to ensure that this child is not adopted and that these fresh matters are aired publicly and urgently. Their disclosure is of paramount importance in protecting both mother and child and enabling mother to at last be heard.

Evaluating Expert Witness Psychological Reports: Exploring Quality

<http://www.ccats.org.uk/images/Expert%20Witness.pdf>

‘Dubious 'experts' are paid to tear families apart

A new report condemns the shoddy standards of psychologists' reports in our family courts. ‘

A study by Professor Jane Ireland, a forensic psychologist, for the Family Justice Council examined 126 psychological reports trawled at random from family court documents. It found that two thirds of them were “poor” or “very poor” in quality

‘Another woman was found by a psychologist to be “a competent mother” – so the social workers went to a second witness, who found the same. They then commissioned a third, who at last came up with what they wanted: that the mother had, again, “a borderline personality disorder”. On that basis, her three children were sent for adoption.’

<http://youtu.be/YYX2tsqAU-8>

Dr Lorandos cross-examines hapless Psychiatrist - accusing him of 'misinforming and misdirecting the proceedings' - finding MCMI-III 'markedly deficient on Construct and Criterion-related validity evidence' quoting Rogers et al. (1999).

'The most judicious course of action is to consider the Millon et al. (1997) study to be fatally flawed. It is noteworthy that none of the three alternatives justifies the use of the MCMI-III in forensic cases. In closing, we reaffirm the conclusions of Rogers et al. (1999): "The MCMI-III does not appear to reach Daubert's threshold for scientific validity with respect to criterion-related or construct validity" (p. 438). Despite Dyer and McCann's (2000) spirited defense, fundamental issues regarding validation (construct, criterion-related, and content), forensic applications, and unacceptable error rate argue against the use of its Axis II interpretations as scientific

Toddler Assault in Cul-de-Sac

'I fairly regularly visited the friend who I had been staying with. On the way I once noticed a man in front of me who then disappeared out of sight. When I took my child out of the buggy the Stalker grabbed my child and sexually abused _____. I was terrified.

I reacted instinctively as follows:

- I tried to minimise the risk of abduction
- I tried to minimise the risk of the _____ being suddenly dropped
- I tried to minimise the risk of injury
- I looked towards the house of my friend to avoid eye contact

The incident felt like a nightmare but later on I found various indications that this was not just a bad dream or hallucination.'

Toddler Rape - Why?

Why rape a boy who just turned 2 years in broad day light in a Cul-de-sac?

1. 'Handy' (weight-wise)

2. Cannot properly talk

3. Kickstart 'Child Snatching' process due to 'unbelievable' nature of assault

4. Destroy protective mother's reputation through Psychs

5. Trigger dissociation (search 'rape dissociation third eye') or read:

<http://henrymakow.com/2016/06/Sodomy-key-to-Mind-Control.html>

'Because he had been abused himself'

'Because he could'

Sodomy is extremely important to the _____ Lodge because ... you get his power. It's just that simple and this elementary principle has been followed for millennia by the Greeks, the Romans, the Fascists and left-hand path initiates. In its highest ranks even British Intelligence uses the back passage.

When initiating children, the _____ Lodge maintains: the younger the better, for a number of reasons ... The key is in the trauma: the complete destruction of the inner spirit. Then at the propitious moment the child's third eye is opened so as to completely resocialize them and open their psychic abilities.

Sodomy is Satan's sex or Satan's new birth of the child. I don't believe anybody can become fully illuminated unless they have been sodomized at around three years of age. If they wait to touch that person until they're ten, twelve, fifteen years old, they will never be fully illuminated because you can't open the third eye after about five or six years of age.

HCPC Fitness?

In the vicinity of Ms _____ the following three 'mysterious' death occurred in the space of 12 months before the attack on the _____:

1. A close friend of the child's nursery teacher was found dead _____, and _____ nearby went up in flames a few weeks later
2. The god-_____ of the boy died when _____ house burned down
3. The half-brother's wife died unexpectedly

Criminal intentions to pervert the course of justice can hence not be ruled out.

There was not a single sentence or idea expressed that would be indicative of 'delusions' or current personality/character issues/problems.

Problem 1: Omission of Incident Coverage

The whole case revolves around the alleged attack on the _____ - which medically was neither proven nor disproven as 1 month had elapsed which is long enough to heal. The session failed to cover this incident. As a consequence any reporting and interpretation must be based on 'Collusion' i.e. repeating the 'delusions' claims of the other mental health professionals that this Clinical Psychologist presumably was meant to cross-check 'independently'.

Allegation 1: Failure to carry out a truly independent assessment in a setting that will decide about the final destiny of a young family – with a completely one-sided case made (up) that is 100% based on 'denial' of the crimes Ms _____ reported.

Problem 2: Omission of 'Giving birth to a baby at 14' Allegation

I understand that when Ms _____ discussed her own abuse including the pregnancy with police one year before the actual attack happened she was advised to disclose the fact that she had a baby at 14 - that disappeared.

In my view that lack of coverage of these two issues entirely invalidates the session, and - given its pivotal role – the entire court proceedings. They prompt me to make this complaint as I am concerned that those involved in the case proceedings may have been 'compromised'. This concern is fuelled by the disclosure involving a 'downstairs neighbour' (implying a paedophile 'ring') in the session I witnessed.

Concern did not meet the HCPC 'Standards of Acceptance'

Dissociation Specialist

Conclusions

Based on observations and questions posed during the assessment, at the present time [redacted] does not meet the DSM IV Criteria for a Dissociative Disorder. Likewise she does not demonstrate any significant dissociative symptoms. It is to be noted, however, that both self reporting screening instruments demonstrated the equivalent of nil scores. It is highly unusual for even non dissociative people to score so low. If I add to this the observations during the assessment, it is in my opinion possible that her potentially significant dissociative symptoms are categorically cut off from consciousness for the time being. Dissociation is, after all, a means of survival and coping in the world outside through a complete amnesia of emotional and traumatic effects of one's childhood. From her account, it seems that a significant amount of abuse memories have been processed on her own.

The SCID D differentiates Dissociative Disorders from other psychiatric disorders such as Schizophrenia. No indications of any psychosis were apparent during the assessment. Thus there were no delusions of thought, hallucinations or disorganised thinking and speech or paranoia. [redacted] presented in a very articulate, emotionally appropriate manner. Her responses and behaviour during the assessment were both honest and open. She was also able to discuss [redacted] with a realistic appraisal of [redacted] behaviour. I had no reason to doubt her ability to look after [redacted] in both the short and longer term.

Royal Court of Justice Fraud ?

Dear Sir/Madame

21 May 2013 at 22:17

I attempted today to submit a 188 page Judicial Review application at the Royal Court of Justice regarding 'Forced Adoption' Order _____ issued by your court on 22nd February 2013. I contacted your personal support unit to ask for the name of the director, president or leader of your institution but was told that such a role does not exist.

I paid for and received a stamp for the application as per attachment. However the RCJ Administration Office refused to accept the three folders that I had prepared. Why? I was told that the issuing place (i.e. _____ County Court) would be the only place where submission of this Judicial Review application is permitted - which seems to defeat the purpose of this remedy as the shortcomings were exactly at this institution - as well as the County Borough Council concerned.

I would like to apply for an extension of another 3 months to prepare a Judicial Review application to be submitted to your institution, or preferably somewhere else that is 'permitted'. Alternatively I would be open to explore other remedies e.g, I have been told that it may be possible to submit an 'out-of-time-appeal'.

The original appeal time line of six weeks could not be met as the ruling transcript had not arrived by that time. I would be delighted to receive some guidance from the presiding judge. I would also be willing to make representations in person e.g. next week Wednesday, Thursday or Friday around lunch time, or on the phone.

I am looking forward to your response.

Best regards, Dr Rainer H. Kurz

No reply from County Court and Council - when preparing to challenge the RCJ clerk in order to lodge a complaint a volunteer phoned around and established that the advice was wrong and urged resubmission (without creating a fuss)

Delusion Definition

A recent UK court custody case quoted 'Blacks Medical Dictionary' (Marcovitch, 2010):

'Delusions An irrational and usually unshakeable belief peculiar to some individual. They fail to respond to reasonable argument and the delusion is often paranoid in character with a belief that a person or persona is/are persecuting them. The existence of a delusion, of such a nature as to seriously influence conduct, is one of the most important signs in reaching a decision to arrange for the compulsory admission of the patient to hospital for observation. (See Mental Illness).'

A Google Search on 18/01/2014 did not result in a single entry that quotes the first definition sentence of Black's Medical Dictionary.

The DSM-V definition (American Psychiatric Association, 2013, p. 819) remains identical to the DSM-III (p. 765) and DSM-IV-TR (p.821):

delusion a false belief based on incorrect inference about external reality that is firmly sustained despite what almost everyone beliefs and despite what constitutes incontrovertible and obvious proof or evidence to the contrary.

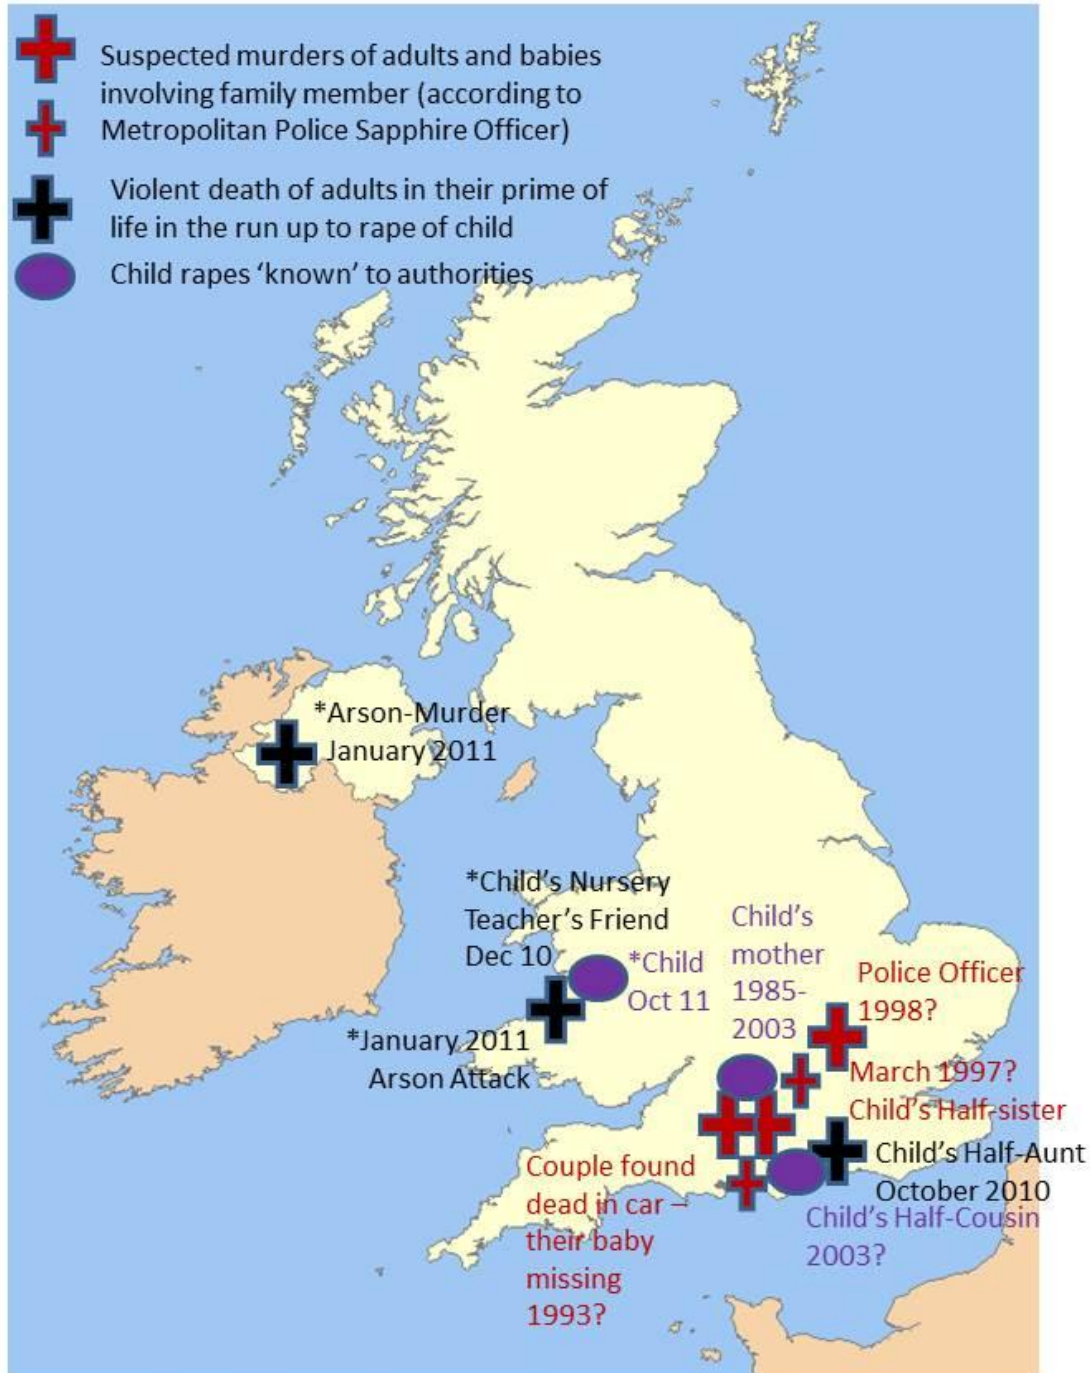

A Google Search on 18/01/2014 brought up 154 entries that quote literally this first DSM Delusion definition sentence.

Operation Midland

Tue 07/06/2016 15:22

Dear Dr Kurz

Unfortunately at this time I am unable to provide to you the TOR for Op Midland. These are for MPS knowledge only, to allow us to investigate relevant information. It maybe in due course they will become public knowledge but not at this time.

I cannot provide you with the details for CRIS 0405609/13. This is a private matter between the complainant and the police. If you have further information regarding a crime then you can of course make another third party allegation to the correct force area. If you have a complaint about the way police dealt with this allegation I suggest that your best course of action is to report to the local force. If you preferred to make an allegation to the IPCC they will then forward to the relevant force area.

With regards to an alleged linked series of murders I cannot see that there is anything at this stage to link those crimes. If you have a complaint about the way they have been investigated then I think the best way would be to go to the correct force area or the IPCC who will do this for you.

The same applies to the other allegations in respect of the Kingston Police officer and Edward Heath.

I can see that you have a considerable number of grievances with the way that a number of police forces have dealt with differing allegations. Op Midland is not the best way to deal with this. We have logged all your information, but at this time as stated none falls within the TOR for Op Midland.

Kind regards

Operation Conifer

Dear _____

It was a pleasure talking to you earlier today. Please find attached the 'leaked' document seemingly prepared by Psychiatrist Dr Joan Coleman. For ease of reference I also attach the .xls file on which I based the two most relevant EPA conference posters (content copied from an occult network site including some comments publicly identifying Joan Coleman as the author).

I also attach the Nuremberg posters which give a succinct account of the main case I am investigating one of which has two URL links embedded:

Extreme Abuse Dossier (the last few pages of which probably tally with one of the documents you had) which were a subset of a Judicial Review submission (thwarted through fraudulent action of Royal Court of Justice staff!):

Part-redacted report on the suspected Arson-Murder:

<https://arsoninformer.files.wordpress.com/2014/09/suspected-arson-murder.pdf>

The suspected serial abuser, rapist, arsonist and murderer lives in Kingston upon Thames 3 miles from my home.

I got various reports and other materials to back my allegations. If done for Arson-Murder the guy (and his wife!) may 'sing' about all sorts of things.

Happy (?) Reading!

I have had a number of encounters with him. Back in 1989, when I was working with BS, my first SRA survivor, Guildford CID called him in for second opinion. His conclusion was that I had invented the entire story and suggested it all to her, causing her to believe all the elaborate detail she had given us. This finished the police investigation on that case. He later caused considerable damage to a family in LASA, which resulted in both the children being taken away from the entirely innocent mother. Both returned to her voluntarily as soon as they were old enough. He was also involved in the Broxtowe Case 1987, before it was known to be SRA rather than only CSA.

Consultant Psychiatrist

You do not suffer from any severe form of formal thought disorder. Your mood seems good tonight and I assess you to be of little risk to yourself or others. Importantly, in spite of these terrible stories I do not feel that they can be discarded as delusions. There are clearly some parts of the story that are so horrendous that it is somewhat difficult to fathom that anyone would do that to children in their own family. There is nothing in your presentation that indicates that you are currently psychotic. You do not hear voices, you are coherent and consistent in your account and there are no objective signs of psychosis. Your insight seems to be good.

█, it was nice to see how much you have improved over the last three months and you do come across as believable as well as traumatised. There is no doubt that you suffer from a degree of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) and the claims that you come up with deserve further investigation. I have on occasions as a younger Psychiatrist dismissed some patients' stories as delusions only to find out years later that their "delusions" actually were true. I do not think we can afford that kind of dismissal in your case.

It is our conclusion, in relation to the initial questions posed that the following is the case:

- 1) That, at the time of this assessment, Ms _____ fulfills diagnostic criteria for complex Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (moderate-severe) with dissociative traits. She does not fulfill diagnostic criteria for Schizophrenia or for Schizoid Personality Disorder. We consider it likely that her unusual beliefs due to religious and cultural factors together with substantive post-traumatic avoidance and denial have been misrepresented as psychotic symptoms in some previous assessments.
- 2) That Ms _____'s self-report of her own abusive history is highly likely to be correct and indeed, her experienced childhood abuse is likely to be even more severe than she reports it to be given her current levels of post-traumatic denial and disavowal.
- 6) We consider that, if the above assertions are proven to be the case, that the impact on Ms _____ of being recurrently questioned and disbelieved by the Police authorities and by a range of mental health professionals is likely to have been considerably re-traumatising and to have affected her mental health significantly.
